

Condé Nast Gold List

Condé Nast Cold List Kennebunkport Maine:

The White Barn Inn & Spa voted one of the top places to stay and eat in the world.

The goal is perfection, and Condé Nast Traveler readers are finding more destinations approaching it every year. With nearly 28,000 travelers voting, almost a third of the 2005 scores were above 90 percent, showing great global variety and depth. There are 476 properties in all this year.

The White Barn Inn & Spa is consistently ranked among the Condé Nast Top 25 North American small hotels. The White Barn Inn Restaurant was at the top of the list again last year, for any restaurant in a resort worldwide in Condé Nast Traveler's Best of the Best awards. Peer fine dining establishments at the top of the list included The Inn at Little Washington, Virginia and Salish Lodge and Spa, Washington.
